

Active Shooter

Trainee Name	Date
--------------	------

As you watch the video, follow along and complete the questions in this guide. You can stop the video and view a section again if needed. The goal is for you to complete this guide and then discuss the material with your designated agency trainer or facilitator.

What is the intent or focus of Assembly Bill 1598?

- A. Medical personnel must be trained in how to respond to an active shooter incident.
- B. Collaborative protocols and relationships must be developed between law enforcement, fire and emergency medical services.
- C. Fire personnel should learn how to co-locate unified command
- D. Law enforcement will gain a better understanding of how to identify potential locations of active shooter incidents.

At an active shooter incident, what are some of the physiological reactions a law enforcement officer might experience?

- A. Tunnel vision
- B. Increased heart rate
- C. Adrenaline surge
- D. All of the above
- E. B and C only

At an active shooter incident, the concept known as “The Four A’s” is best described by which of the following answers?

- A. Assess, Anticipate, Announce, Arrest
- B. Arrive, Announce, Act, Arrest
- C. Assess, Announce, Assemble, Act
- D. Arrive, Assess, Announce, Act

What is the main responsibility of a force protection team?

- A. Provide perimeter security for the entire incident
- B. Provide security for the reunification point
- C. Enter and mitigate the shooter
- D. Provide security for the rescue task force as they enter the incident

In a unified command situation at an active shooter incident, the lead would belong to whom?

- A. Fire incident commander
- B. Law enforcement incident commander
- C. It is fluid and can transition from one agency to the other as needed
- D. It belongs to whichever incident commander arrives on scene first and establishes command

Which of the following is a benefit gained from co-locating a unified command during a mass casualty or active shooter event?

- A. A more effective and more efficient response
- B. Direct, face-to-face communication between Fire and law enforcement
- C. Little or no miscommunication
- D. Accurate and immediate sharing of information
- E. All of the above
- F. A, B and D only

In a mass casualty incident, a rescue task force consists of force protection AND which of the following?

- A. EMS personnel
- B. Fire personnel
- C. EMS personnel AND fire personnel
- D. Any combination of EMS personnel and/or fire personnel

Describe the characteristics of a warm zone as it relates to an active shooter incident.

Why is it NOT recommended for law enforcement to transport a victim to a hospital without having coordinated this transport?

- A. It may not be the best hospital for the type of injury to the victim
- B. They may not have the specialist available for the type of injury the victim sustained
- C. They may not have the bed space or personnel available
- D. All of the above

During an active shooter incident, one of the critically important considerations is the establishment of a reunification location for family members.

True _____ False _____

